

FMP Radio Script

(Opening will be for 2 minutes)

Presenter – Hello and welcome to the Film4fans radio show! My name is Charlie and Today we will be reviewing about a popular new film that has been met to critical acclaim! We will also be discussing what's happening in the film world and talking about upcoming film releases that are going to take the box office by storm!

We will even have a special guest on our show, who is here to talk to us about his documentary on the peaky blinders.

Presenter- Okay then! Let's start our first section of today's show!

(Beginning of review section which will last for 6 minutes)

Presenter – But for now, Let's introduce today's guest's! Would you like to introduce yourselves!

Guest 1 – Hello my name is Ingo and It's great to be here!

Guest 2 – Hello my name is Sammy and I am happy to be on the show.

Presenter: That's great to hear! As you know, for today's show we will be discussing about the release of upcoming new films that are expected to storm the box office.

We will also be reviewing a film that has been released to critical acclaim.

Finally, we will also be discussing about what's going in the world of films!

Guest 1 - I'm looking forward to it!

Guest 2 – So am I!

Presenter – Okay then, Let's get on with today's show!

(Introduction finishes and the next Section begins)

(Review Section begins and the presenter begins asking questions about the film is that is being reviewed)

Presenter – Today's film we will be reviewing is Marvel's Logan. The film's release date for the UK was March 1st 2017 and this film has received positive reviews since its release.

Presenter – The story takes place in the far future. The main protagonist Logan (played by Hugh Jackman) is looking after a sick and elderly professor X (played by Patrick Stewart) in the Mexican border.

He meets an unlikely ally called Laura (played by Dafne Keen) whom is similar to Logan in many ways. Logan eventually discovers that dark forces want to capture her and use her for evil purposes.

(At this point in this section, the presenter will be asking the guests some questions)

(Below is the questions asked by the presenter to the guests)

Presenter – What did you think of the film’s storyline?

Presenter – What was your favourite part of the film?

Presenter – Did you think we got to see Logan develop more in this film?

Presenter – Who do you think was the best character in the film and why?

Presenter – And, finally what improvements do you think the film should of made?

(End of review section and news section begins which will last for 5 minutes)

Presenter – Now, its time for the next section, which is talking about news in the film world!

(Presenter begins asking questions for the news section)

Presenter – Have you seen the trailer for Blade runner 2049 and are you going to see it when it releases in cinemas.

Presenter – At this year's Oscars, 'La La Land' accidentally won best picture and it was actually 'Moonlight' that won that category. What are your opinions on this infamous moment at the Oscars?

Presenter – Before, we move onto the next section, my last question for you is about the next Star Wars film called the Last Jedi. Are you going to see this film and what are you looking forward to seeing in the franchise's next instalment.

(News section ends and Upcoming section begins which will last for 4 minutes)

Presenter – For our upcoming section today, we will be discussing upcoming film's that are expected to take the box office by storm.

(Questions asked by presenter for guests in Upcoming section)

Presenter - Firstly, the Nolan brothers released their last film in 2014 called 'Interstellar' that was met to critical acclaim. This year they are back with a film called Dunkirk that is set in time period of World War Two.

Are you looking forward to their next biggest release and do you think it will be as successful as some of their past releases?

Presenter – Thor is back on film screens later this year. The next film is called Thor 'Ragnarok' and it tells us what happened to Thor after 'Avengers Age of Ultron'.

Do you expect this film to be the best one yet?

Presenter - The third instalment of the kingsman franchise will be in cinemas in September.

Will Matthew Vaughn's franchise continue to be successful and what would you like to see in his upcoming film.

(Upcoming Section Ends and Interview Begins which will last for 6 minutes)

(Interview questions for Special Guest)

Presenter - What interested you in focusing a documentary about the Peaky Blinders?

Presenter - What research did you do about the peaky blinders before you started filming your documentary?

Presenter - Were you able to speak to any generation of family associated with the Peaky Blinders.

Presenter - Do you think the modern day TV series is a realistic portrayal of the Peaky Blinders.

Presenter - Why do you think that people are interested in the Peaky Blinders.

(End of Interview and the rest of the show will finish in 7 minutes)

(Two questions for guests)

Presenter - Do anyone of you want to share your final opinions on today's show?

Presenter - What do you think was the most interesting section of the show today and why?

(End of Radio show script)