

Olympia

By Sammy Gabrria-Nivas

Daytime INT - Forest

We are shown scenery of a forest. Footsteps quickly step on the grass. A 18 year old girl goes to hide behind a big thick tree as she senses someone is trying to find her.

A male figure is seen behind a bush while fiddling with his binoculars. His name is 'Wyatt' a 20 year old government agent who is tasked with finding the 18 year old girl and stopping her.

After Wyatt fiddles with his binoculars, he takes a deep breath and closes his eyes. Wyatt then reopens his eyes with a determined expression showing that he is ready to complete his mission. He presses the button on his binoculars and looks into a screen to help him locate the 18 year old girl.

In a first person view, Wyatt looks around the forest trying to find the girl. The girl looks on at Wyatt who is trying to find her.

She begins to feel scared and her body starts to tremble. However, she breaths deeply and leaves her hiding position from the tree. She walks into an exposed area showing that she has enough courage to face the person who will attempt stop her.

As she looks on, Wyatt's binoculars make a sound that tells him the 18 year old girl's location. He puts his binoculars down and finds the girl.

Without hesitating, Wyatt leaves the bush and prepares to confront the girl he has to stop. Before he confronts her at a full distance, he takes his time as he walks in a upwards posture showing he is ready to confront his foe and prepare for combat if his foe starts to fight back at him.

Wyatt finally confronts the girl but we still see the back of her as we still don't know her full facial appearance.

Wyatt takes a depth breath and prepares to confront his foe.

Wyatt

My mission is to take you back!

The girl shrugs of Wyatt's comment.

Her facial appearance is fully revealed.

She is a cyborg called Olympia.

Olympia sarcastically smiles.

Wyatt slowly walks up with his electromagnetic pulse. He faints at her which startles her.

Wyatt then quickly dashes and uses his EMP taser to turn her off

However, Olympia dodges it, kicks his stomach and then punches him in the face. Wyatt falls back a bit due to impact of the hits.

She smiles at him in a cocky way knowing that she is going to be a challenge.

Wyatt once again tries to turn off Olympia but this time he kicks her on the side of her body too. Olympia punches him in the stomach and then kicks his arm, he slightly loses his balance but punches her on the shoulder.

Olympia loses her balance, Wyatt uses this as an opportunity to try and use his EMP taser against her stomach. However, she kicks his arm and punches him three times in the face.

Wyatt falls to the floor and his EMP taser drops out of his hand. He does his best to gain back his strength but Olympia pins her foot down on his stomach.

Olympia smiles in a triumphant way knowing that the victory is in her favour.

Wyatt then kicks her arm and she falls slightly towards the side.

Wyatt then gets back up grabs his EMP taser and see's another opportunity to subdue Olympia.

As Wyatt dashes to turn her off, her cyborg instincts allow her to sense the attack. Olympia quickly turns around to tightly grip Wyatt's arm.

The grip hurts Wyatt, Olympia uses this as opportunity to fully kick him in the stomach.

The powerful kick causes Wyatt to grunt and fall backwards. His EMP taser once again falls out of his hand.

Olympia grabs the EMP taser and confronts Wyatt as he once again tries to get back up. Olympia plays with the EMP taser in her hand teasing Wyatt that his most trusted weapon will be used against him.

Olympia stops playing with the EMP taser

She then presses a button on the taser that makes it go to its highest meter and prepares to finish off Wyatt. Wyatt closes his eyes in fear, however nothing happens.

Olympia steps back and keeps her cool. Wyatt becomes confused by her decision not use the EMP taser on him.

Wyatt

Aren't you goanna finish me off then?!

Olympia stares at Wyatt long and hard

Wyatt

Well, go on then! Explain!

Olympia sighs and turns off the EMP taser.

Olympia

You know who I am Wyatt.

It's me...Juniper...

Wyatt becomes shocked by Olympia's claim to be Juniper someone he knew very well and tries to debunk her claim.

Wyatt

How can you be Juniper? She vanished that day when we were playing together and I have been looking for her ever since.

Olympia

It is me though I am Juniper!

Olympia slowly walks up to him. Wyatt who is still on the ground tries backing away from Olympia.

Wyatt

No,... You're not Juniper! Stay away from me!

Olympia stops walking and stands in front of Wyatt

Olympia

If you don't believe me then... Perhaps this will remind you.

Olympia slowly reaches into her pocket and hands Wyatt a robotic toy as he sits back up. He becomes surprised by this as it's one of his childhood toys that went missing.

Wyatt

Where did you find this? It's one my childhood toys I used to play with but I can't remember when I lost it.

Wyatt fully stands up and winds it up. He is surprised that it is still working. As he thoughtfully stares at his childhood toy, memories come rushing through to him as he remembers when he lost his childhood toy. His eyes widen as he remembers that the place he lost his toy at was a playground which is also the childhood location of where him and Juniper played together.

Wyatt slowly looks at Olympia and asks if she really is Juniper

Wyatt

You... You're Juniper?

Olympia's lips slowly move as she is about to saying something and Wyatt looks at Olympia waiting to hear what she says.

It will then cut to black.
