

Olympus

By Sammy Gabrria-Nivas

Daytime INT - Inside 21st Modern Building

A 18 year old boy goes to hide in the somewhere in the room as he senses someone is trying to find him.

A male figure is seen walking into the room
while fiddling with his binoculars. His name is 'Wyatt' a 20 year old government agent who is tasked with finding the 18 year old boy and stopping him.

After Wyatt fiddles with his binoculars, he takes a deep breath and closes his eyes. Wyatt then reopens his eyes with a determined expression showing that he is ready to complete his mission. He presses the button on his binoculars and looks into a screen to help him locate the 18 year old boy.

In a first person view, Wyatt looks around the forest trying to find the boy. The boy looks on at Wyatt who is trying to find him.

He begins to feel scared and his body starts to tremble. However, he breaths deeply and leaves his hiding position. he walks into the front of the room showing that he has enough courage to face the person who will attempt stop him.

As he looks on, Wyatt's binoculars make a sound that tells him the 18 year old boy's location. He puts his binoculars down and finds the boy.

Without hesitating, Wyatt he prepares to confront the boy he has to stop. Before he confronts her at a full distance, he takes his time as he walks in a upwards posture showing he is ready to confront his foe and prepare for combat if his foe starts to fight back at him.

Wyatt finally confronts the boy but we still see the back of her as we still don't know her full facial appearance.

Wyatt takes a depth breath and prepares to confront his foe.

Wyatt

My mission is to take you back!

The boy shrugs of Wyatt's comment.

His facial appearance is fully revealed.

He is a cyborg called Olympus.

Olympus sarcastically smiles.

Wyatt slowly walks up with his electromagnetic pulse. He faints at him which he becomes startled by. Wyatt then quickly dashes and uses his EMP taser to turn Olympus off.

As time passes during their brawl, Wyatt falls to the floor after being overwhelmed by Olympus's strength during their brawl. His EMP taser also falls out of his hand.

Olympus grabs the EMP taser and confronts Wyatt as he once again tries to get back up. Olympus plays with the EMP taser in his hand teasing Wyatt that his most trusted weapon will be used against him.

Olympia stops playing with the EMP taser

He then presses a button on the taser that makes it go to its highest meter and prepares to finish off Wyatt. Wyatt closes his eyes in fear, however nothing happens.

Olympus steps back and keeps his cool. Wyatt becomes confused by Olympus's decision not use the EMP taser on him.

Wyatt

Aren't you goanna finish me off then?!

Olympus stares at Wyatt long and hard

Wyatt

Well, go on then! Explain!

Olympus sighs and turns off the EMP taser.

Olympus

You know who I am Wyatt.

It's me...Juniper...

Wyatt becomes shocked by Olympus's claim to be Juniper someone he knew very well and tries to debunk his claim.

Wyatt

How can you be Juniper? He vanished that day when we were playing together and I have been looking for him ever since.

Olympia

It is me though I am Juniper!

Olympus slowly walks up to him. Wyatt who is still on the ground tries backing away from Olympia.

Wyatt

No,... You're not Juniper! Stay away from me!

Olympus stops walking and stands in front of Wyatt

Olympus

If you don't believe me then... Perhaps this will remind you.

Olympus slowly reaches into his pocket and hands Wyatt a robotic toy as he sits back up. He becomes surprised by this as it's one of his childhood toys that went missing.

Wyatt

Where did you find this? It's one my childhood toys I used to play with but I can't remember when I lost it.

Wyatt fully stands up and winds it up. He is surprised that it is still working. As he thoughtfully stares at his childhood toy, memories come rushing through to him as he remembers when he lost his childhood toy. His eyes widen as he remembers that the place he lost his toy at was a playground which is also the childhood location of where him and Juniper played together.

Wyatt slowly looks at Olympus and asks if he really is Juniper

Wyatt

You... You're Juniper?

Olympus's lips slowly move as he is about to saying something and Wyatt looks at Olympus waiting to hear what he says.

It will then cut to black.
